CUTICURA QUICKLY

An Itching, Scratching, Sleepless Child Healed in Two Weeks. Broke Out in Little Red Pimples. Hair All Came Out. Head a Solid Eruption.

"My child had eczema on her head. It first began to break out in little red pimples that itched so badly she could not sleep and she was cross and irritable. She scratched and the more she scratched the worse it got. Her hair all came out and her head got to be a solid eruption.
"A friend then advised me to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I did. In two weeks her head was completely healed and I only used one bar of Cuticura Scap and one box of Cuticura Oint-ment." (Signed) Mrs. J. L. Walker, Talking Rock, Ga., July 14, 1916. You can so quickly get rid of skin and scalp troubles if you use Cuticura Soap and no other to cleanse and purify and Cuticura Ointment to scothe and heal Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal that it is a pity not to use them at the first signs of eczemas, rashes, pimples, dandriff, itchings and irritation. Many estimable lives have been embittered by such afflictions.

Strangers in Town Spend Last Dime Telephoning Wallet's Owner.

There are two young men in this city who are certain of the truth of the saying "Honesty is the gest policy." They are J. E. Jones and Bert C. Miller, one from Ohio and the other from Kansas, who are here awaiting appointments in the quartermaster department of the army. R. E. Johnston, a guest at Capitol Park Hotel, yesterday afternoon lost his wallet containing $281 and it was found by the young men, who are prospective paymasters in Uncle Sam's service.

The young men had been here son The young men had been here some time awaiting appointments and, they stated, they had only a dime left. They spent the dime in two telephone calls to the hotel to notify the owner of the money they had found it and when Mr. Johnston saw them at 615 Lexipgton place northeast they did not want to accept a reward for their honesty.

Mr. Johnston prevailed upon them to accept a sum of money, however, and told them if they needed any more money to tide them over he would stake them.

Nearly 200 Members and Guests Go Minnesota Plan Involves Supervision to Upper Marlboro, Md.

Nearly 200 members of The Evening Star Club and their guests enjoyed the club's annual motor trip and chicken dinner at Farmers' Hotel, Upper Marlboro, last evening. About fifty cars participated in the "run," leaving The Star building about 4:30 o'clock. The pace was set by "Bob" Cahill.

After the party had enjoyed a concert by Manvell's Orchestra, had patronized a Red Cross lawn fete in the village and recreated at bowling and other sports, full justice was done to an elaborate spread set out on the lawn by B. F. Duckett, the proprietor of the hotel.

Frank Hurley, president of The Evening Star Club, was master of the feast, and Guy V. Coilins, chairman of the entertainment committee, officiated as announcer for the various numbers. Among those called upon for speeches were Victor Kauffmann, Postmaster Merrit O. Chance, Robert N. Harper and I. A. Fleming.

William T. Pierson, who wrote the music for "Sons of America, America, Needs You," officiated at the piano, while the entire assemblage sang that and other patriotic songs and old-time favorites. Solos were contributed by William Clabaugh and Ed Hutchinson. to Upper Marlboro, Md.

"I Wonder Why" The catchiest, daintiest of musical show hits-the song of "Love o' Mike," sung by Anna Wheaton in such a pretty, appealing way that you won't "wonder why" all Broadway's wild about her! A xylophone furnishes a novel little touch that adds to the charm of this lively bit of song. On the other side is "Rolled Into One," the star song of the show in which Miss Wheaton is now starring: "Oh, Boy," the big Broadway

Here's a combination you rarely get-Brice & King, Keith vaudeville favorites, and a lively, lilting Chinese love-song with a teasing melody that has Jazz bands playing it and every one humming it, any real place you go in New York. Especially with the fine baritone-tenor duet, "Down at the Huskin' Bee," on the other side.

And if you want to listen to some other great hits, ask your Columbia dealer to play "There Are Two Eyes in Dixie" (A2243, 75c); "If You Ever Get Lonely," sung by Brice & King (A2229, 75c); the tenor duet "Georgia" (A2230, 75c), and "Evening Brings Rest and You"

Be sure you hear these records (with the "music-notes") today—they are sure to be just the records you want!
